Description

Two period townhouses for sale in Benissa (sold together). One of the larger townhouses with internal gardens is located in the town center of Benissa. The property was originally two independent townhouses with two different street numbers but is now sold as one property. There is both independent access and an internal connection. The first townhouse has a garage for two cars. Behind the garage is a covered terrace that opens to an interior patio with sufficient space for a pool. The covered terrace area features a water well, clay oven, and wine storage. At the rear of the gardens, there is a stable for horses. The stable has a mezzanine that used to be used for hay storage but could be converted into a bathroom or further accommodation. Also, on the ground floor, there is an entrance lobby and an adjacent room, a lounge with a window to the gardens and a fireplace, and a staircase to the second level. The lounge and entrance room have a door communicating through a non-structural wall. Behind the lounge is a room that was used for storing olive oil. This storage room is located next to the stable in the building. The first floor of this side of the property has one huge bedroom located adjacent to the hay storage, a second bedroom, and access via a balcony terrace into the second property. The second townhouse occupies the first floor of the building and is in better condition for living. This property also has its own staircase for independent access from the street and garage. This side of the property features a lounge with a fireplace, a balcony with garden views, three bedrooms, a bathroom, and a kitchen with windows overlooking the rear gardens. Parts of the property need renovation but are generally in a "well-maintained" condition. The property has connections to the mains drainage, electricity, and water. The property boasts many traditional features with high vaulted ceilings, 3.5 m solid wood doors, two gorgeous fireplaces, beautiful original floors and carpentry, and bay windows to the front of the building. This magnificent property is located with the town centre of Benissa near to the church square, all amenities, services and the weekly market are found in short walking distance. This is an excellent opportunity for someone searching for a period townhouse in Benissa with either an extended family or a rental business.
