Description

Situated in an urbanized area right within a gated complex is this attractive three bedroom townhouse which is near the town center and the fine sandy beaches. It is located in a quiet area and offers a redefined communal living experience which includes a communal pool and gardens as well as a children's park; a sound community for people from all walks of life.

Built in 2008, this property is in very good condition and serves up open views of the mountains which are truly beautiful. A cozy sitting room is present within this home with a small dining area set up in the same room to maximize on the space. Next to the staircase can be found another small sitting area. Each of the bedrooms has wide picture windows to let in natural light with three bathrooms servicing the entire house.

Every townhouse has its own small private garden in addition to the shared spaces, all optimized to allow family and friends to enjoy their stay while making good on the available resources. Each home also includes a parking space making this a perfect and practical low maintenance home for you to live in all year round or spend a pleasant holiday in a home away from home.

The common grounds are large enough to accommodate multiple families at a time with added safety measures to ensure the comfort of the residents. From kids to adults, there is something for everyone out here.
