3 bedroom Villa in Altea

Altea, Alicante, Spain

695.000 €

Ref: 613336

Description

As the saying, and the same case applies here: it's all in the details of this elaborate great opportunity which is nicely tucked in the Altea region within a gated complex. A bargain unlike any other where you get two homes for the price of one, this expansive two level property is well spread on a 2200 m2 site surface and serves up breathtaking sea and open skies views from the top level.

A lot of things stand out for this majestic property. In the main house which features large arched floor length windows, there are two sitting rooms with the main living area tastefully decorated and featuring great art pieces to balance out the furniture in subtle colors that are very calming. The room is well done and arranged to optimize on the heat radiating from the fireplace when the need to light a fire arises. Aside from a small dining area which is set right at the edge of this main room, the flowing floor plan leads to another small sitting area which opens out to the gardens; a great area to entertain and watch the sunset from. Each of the bedrooms has been fitted to project different characters while maintaining the theme of quaint accommodations.

There is a guest house which also has a kitchen and adequate features in which you can play host to family and friends while near enough to engage in late night entertainment and conversations. There is a barbeque area with all the necessary provisions to support a serious event even as you enjoy the services of two swimming pools, one large one and the other a smaller one with a waterfall. Add in ample parking space including within the garage and you will get a great home with the most desirable welcoming vibe. And it can be yours today.
