Description

Located in a marvelous neighborhood surrounded by large luxury properties, this project is a new, elegant and modern villa with open views. Open to the light with an architecturally well thought out construction, luxurious finishes and intricate details, this beautiful new villa sets a new standard for modern living. Stone and the contrast between the gray and pure white color palette have merged to form a modern design, while accents such as stone countertops and interior patio create a sense of understated elegance and opulence.
