Description

What is more blissful than the breath-taking ocean views right from your balcony and a relaxing, calming breeze of fresh air?

Right here is an elegant villa that overlooks the Mediterranean Sea. At only 5 minutes away from the little marina of Les Bassetes and the ecological path which joins the most beautiful coves and beaches, it is an ideal option for a holiday home or primary residence.

The beauty starts off from the living room, a glorious relaxation space with a beam ceiling as its highlight. It gives off a modern rustic and contemporary feel, creating an interesting depth and sophistication. Add that to the natural light that floods in from the glass windows and door, the white walls and the incandescent lighting from the chandelier, everything comes to life in its brightness. The living room is complemented by a wine bar and mini bar, displaying the options of drinks to have after a long day or to entertain guests.

Adjacent to the living room is a splendid kitchen, spacious and fully fitted with modern equipment. Its red cabinets add a unique oomph and a one-of-a-kind uniqueness.

Do you enjoy having meals while overlooking the horizon or under the moonlit sky? Then you will appreciate the glass walled dining area just next to the balcony.

On the first level are 3 spacious bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, with each room benefiting from ample natural lighting and splendid views.

The terrace right outside the house is a haven for relaxation. You'll be spoilt for choice from the 2 creatively designed spots; the balcony as you overlook the beautiful scenery and the papyrus reed themed terrace on the ground floor.

Do you fancy pool parties? Invite your friends over to take a dip in the 10x5 swimming pool as you barbecue away on the grill.

Other features include a spacious double garage, an fireplace, and hot - cold air conditioning.

This house is also a great option for someone who is open to refurbish this property into a modern style home in a top location. Jetvillas is also a reputable building company with 30 years of experience, and with us, you have the ideal partner to unlock the potential of this villa.
