Description

You might think that this is a fairy tale, but you are going to be astounded by the reality of it all. An exquisite modern villa conveniently located near all of the main amenities as well as some extras such as the beach, golf, restaurants, and supermarkets. The villa is situated on the cliffside in Moraira's luxury and serene location. Wake up and drift off in style as the property provides stunning and panoramic views of the entire coast from Calpe to Moraira, as well as its own hilly terrain. And that's only the start!br>br>

This magnificent property has fantastic glass walls that create the sense of endless room while keeping the property bright and well lit. That's before you notice how it's set against the plot as if it were cut from the ground, with a wonderful background that fades away as much as it projects itself.br>br>

The main sitting area is situated on the same floor as the pool. Oriented to face a fireplace built into the wall, enjoy wonderful sights of the surrounding area every time you settle down for some family entertainment, or simply gaze far into the horizon while calm as you meditate after a long day. The dining room and open chef's kitchen, which is elegant and magnificent from the counters and cabinets to the design and finishing, share the same breath-taking views. With 5 bedrooms and 5 bathrooms, you'll have plenty of space to host your friends.br>br>

Cosy in every way and spacious at the same time, the space has a laid back décor which is grounding with an understated elegance, making you relax immediately with its calming effect.br>br>
