Description

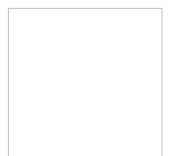

Set on a large plot of 18,600 m², this extraordinary property is the perfect retreat for those who are looking for tranquillity and connection with nature with all the comforts of the 21st century.

Situated amidst vineyards and lush trees, this country house is designed in the traditional Mediterranean style where every detail has been carefully chosen.

The house has a large ground floor where the living room, kitchen, dining room and a spacious and elegant master bedroom with en-suite bathroom are located. A sort of private sanctuary that provides everything you need for relaxation and enjoyment. Upstairs there are two double bedrooms with a bathroom.

The property has a stable that can accommodate up to four horses and is equipped with all the necessary comforts for the welfare of the animals. A unique and ideal space for horse riding enthusiasts.

The finca has been meticulously renovated in 2023 with all the comforts of modern life but with a traditional Mediterranean style that blends in with the natural surroundings.
