Property Distribution

The apartment occupies approximately 160 m² in total, including its impressive 60 m² private terrace. Located on the first floor and served by a lift, the property provides three bedrooms, one bathroom and an open-plan kitchen and living space. The kitchen is integrated into the main living area and features a large granite worktop and wine refrigerator. The substantial terrace extends the living space outdoors and is oriented towards the south.

Full Property Details

This renovated Dénia apartment offers a straightforward combination of space, outdoor living and central convenience. The main accommodation is arranged around an open-plan kitchen and living area, creating a practical setting for everyday life and entertaining. The kitchen benefits from a generous granite work surface and includes a wine refrigerator.

Three bedrooms provide flexibility for family living, visiting guests or creating a dedicated home-working space, while the property has one bathroom. Hot and cold air conditioning is installed, adding year-round comfort.

One of the defining features is the 60 m² private terrace. Finished with natural stone and facing south, it provides a substantial outdoor area with plenty of sunlight. The terrace is particularly valuable in a central apartment, giving the home its own private exterior space without compromising its walkable location.

The property has been completely renovated and is offered fully furnished, allowing a new owner to move in without the need for further furnishing or renovation work. First-floor access and a lift add further practicality.

Central Dénia Living

The property's location in the centre of Dénia means everyday amenities are close at hand.

Supermarkets and local shops are nearby, alongside a choice of restaurants and cafés. Schools are also within walking distance, while the port and beach are readily accessible on foot.

For buyers searching for real estate in Dénia or a property for sale in Dénia, Costa Blanca, this apartment stands out for its combination of three bedrooms, substantial private outdoor space, renovation, lift access and central position. It is also a strong choice for anyone specifically seeking an apartment for sale in Dénia with the convenience of having key amenities close by.
