Description

The villa has a built area of approximately 250 m² and is spread over two floors. There are four bedrooms, two bathrooms, and two kitchens, making the layout well-suited for families and hosting family and friends. The spacious living room features a fireplace and connects to a large glass naya or winter garden. The villa was completely renovated in 2006. Outside, you will find a private pool with a spacious sun terrace, various seating areas, and a mature tropical garden. The southwest orientation and sea view enhance the appeal of this location. Additionally, the villa has a garage, a storage room, and ample parking available on the property. Central heating with radiators ensures comfort throughout the year. Thanks to the combination of an authentic look, a flexible layout, and its location close to the center, this villa is suitable as a permanent residence or as a second home on the Costa Blanca. Asking price: € 1,100,000
